

SEXTANT 2019

X-SERIES ESTATE VERDEJO

APPELLATION: Paso Robles, California

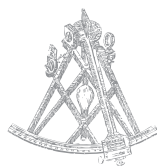

WINEMAKING: The Verdejo block in RBZ Vineyard is one of the smallest white wine blocks on the ranch, coming in at 1.2 acres total. We chose to harvest slightly earlier in 2019, aiming for higher acidity and brighter citrus and floral notes. Fermented in 100% stainless steel and aged for a short 6 months before it was bottled to respect this bright wine and get it in your hands as soon as possible!

TASTING NOTES: The 2019 Sextant Verdejo is a glass of summertime. Bursting with notes of white nectarine, fresh picked apricots, and granite like minerality, this wine excites even more on the palate. Ever so slightly tart, Granny smith apple like acidity immediately introduces itself upon your first sip, and transitions to a mid-palate with flavors of Honeydew melon and Ventura peaches. The finish highlights the bright acidity that the 2019 vintage has begun to showcase. Certainly, a dry white wine drinkers dream, this Verdejo will pair well with any hot summer day!
