

SEXTANT 2020 GRENACHE BLANC

APPELLATION: Paso Robles, California

WINEMAKING: White wine varietals have always been difficult to grow in Paso Robles, but Grenache Blanc has proven time and time again it can stand up to the heat. Grown in our estate RBZ Vineyard in El Pomar, we hand pick this small block, and go direct to press upon arrival to the winery. Slow, cool fermentation in stainless steel aids in preserving the fresh fruit aromas. Aged only 5 months in stainless steel, the 2020 Grenache Blanc is highlighted by bright acidity and fresh minerality, we hope you enjoy!

TASTING NOTES: The 2020 Sextant Grenache Blanc is the perfect wine to welcome in spring and summer. A burst of peaches, white nectarines, and pineapples highlight the aroma, marking the light freshness of this varietal. Lemon zest like acidity opens up the palate, and gracefully softens to a banana cream like finish, screaming for warm afternoons by the pool!
