

SEXTANT 2021 GRENACHE BLANC

APPELLATION: Paso Robles, California

WINEMAKING: White wine varietals have always been difficult to grow in Paso Robles, but Grenache Blanc has proven time and time again it can stand up to our warmer summer temperatures. Grown in our estate RBZ Vineyard in the El Pomar district, we hand pick this small block, and go direct to press upon arrival at the winery. Slow, cool fermentation in stainless steel aids in preserving the fresh fruit aromas. Aged only five months in stainless steel, the 2021 Grenache Blanc is highlighted by bright acidity and fresh minerality.

TASTING NOTES: The 2021 Sextant Grenache Blanc is the perfect wine to welcome in spring and summer. A flurry of peaches, white nectarines, and pineapples highlight the aroma, marking the light freshness of this varietal. Bright lemon acidity opens up the palate, and gracefully softens to a banana cream finish, screaming for warm afternoons by the pool!
